

Wells Fargo gives $10,000 to area schools

By Don Worthington - dworthington@heraldonline.com

The Wells Fargo wagon arrives at the bank's branch on Main Street in Rock Hill this morning, bringing the superintendents of the Rock Hill, York and Clover school systems.

The bank donated $10,000 to each school district's foundation.

Donations are also planned to the Fort Mill and Lancaster school systems.

Wells Fargo brought a stagecoach to downtown Rock Hill Thursday morning. The bank announced scholarships for local schools. By Don Worthington.

The event was also ribbon cutting for the Wells Fargo bank, which completed the transition from Wachovia on Sept. 17.

District Manager Rhonda Tomken said while it's a new name, "it's the same people."