FORT MILL TOWNSHIP — The Foundation for Fort Mill Schools has named Jill Lauber executive director.

Lauber will plan, organize, direct and coordinate all activities of the foundation. Lauber graduated from Stark Technical College with an Associate of Applied Business in Office Administration.

A resident of Fort Mill for nearly 10 years, Lauber has two children in the school district and said she took the job because she knew she could help.

"I completely believe in the mission," she said. "It's such a good fit for my skills. When the opportunity came up, I couldn't say no."

Lauber said one of her goals for the foundation is to help board members build relationships with business leaders.

"She hit the ground running," Foundation president Angie McCrae said. "We didn't realize how much we needed her."
